Psi Chi and Psychology Club at the University of Houston

Who We Are

Our organizations consist of diverse and unique members with a passion for psychology and a desire to create a supportive community here at UH.

The Psi Chi Honor Society and Psychology Club are organizations guided by three core values: scholarship, philanthropy, and excellence.

MEMBERSHIP

While Psi Chi and Psychology Club generally operate as one organization, they are two different organizations that work together. To attend member-only events, you must belong to either the UH Psi Chi chapter, or Psychology Club. While these two organizations act as one, there are different membership requirements and application processes, as Psi Chi is an honor society and Psychology Club is a UH student organization. You may either apply to be a member of both Psi Chi and Psychology Club, or you may apply to Psychology Club. Essentially, Psi Chi Honor Society members are also registered Psychology Club members. Both organizations share meetings, social events, fund raising, and community activities together. As such, both require members to demonstrate a genuine interest in psychology, leadership, high standards of personal behavior, and commitment to actively participate in chapter events and activities.
